

◆ Intensive Abroad Program ◆

ADVANCED STUDY OF KHMER

2015

JUNE 15 - JULY 24

A six-week training in Khmer language-culture held in Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

This program is equivalent to two-semester Khmer coursework at the University of Hawai'i.

10 fellowships (DE-Fulbright-Hays Group Projects Abroad Program Short-Term Projects) will be offered to qualified applicants.

For application details, visit:
manoa.hawaii.edu/ask/apply.html
or

khmer.hawaii.edu/SAP.html

Application deadline:
February 27, 2015

Dr. Chhany Sak-Humphry

Khmer Language Program Coordinator, Associate Professor & Intensive Abroad Program Director

Phone: (808) 956 8070 Fax: (808) 956 5978 Email: sak@hawaii.edu

The ASK program is in collaboration with the Royal University of Phnom-Penh, Cambodia. The program is funded by the Fulbright-Hays Group Projects Abroad (GPA) Program, U.S. Department of Education (www.ed.gov/programs/iegpsgpa/index.html). However, the contents of this publication do not necessarily represent the policy of the Department of Education, and may not be endorsed by the Federal Government.